About the Exhibit:

The exhibit “Observation: The Human Form” is part of Art Works’ 2020 series exploring artists’ perspectives of the human experience. We encourage artists to submit work that is observational in nature to bring focus to human form through figure study, gestural line, or portraiture. We seek to feature work that edifies every detail of the human form. We encourage artists to portray the human form in a variety of innovative ways in order to challenge our audiences: realism, abstraction, live modeling, performance, photography, sculpture, creative writing, and body art. Challenge us to see the human form through your perspective.
