

CALL FOR ART: 2022 @ Art Works

LIFE IS IN THE DETAILS

CALL FOR ART: All Makers, 2D, 3D, literary and performance artists are encouraged to apply for Art Works' 2022 exhibit series LIFE IS IN THE DETAILS. In 2022, we need to take a deeper look at the little things in our daily lives. Appreciate the details of the human form, the mechanics of things, and the healing contributions made by the work of artists. Small things can be made large, large things can be made small. What details do you notice? Plan to participate in our full season of exhibits. Use the QR code above to read the complete details, apply online, and learn more about exhibits at Art Works.

“What Were You Wearing - a Response” (Special exhibit show runs: April 1-22, 2022)

About the Exhibit: This is a special one-month exhibit running concurrently with “What Were You Wearing”, a project by 360 Communities that focuses on dispelling myths about sexual assault. Art Works is working with 360 Communities on their special project to bring insight to cultural norms around this topic. This exhibit invites artists to respond to their cultural experience with sexual assault, violence, sexual harassment, power and myth, and perhaps the road to survival and healing. Art provides an outlet for healing and the expression of all kinds of emotions and traumas. Work for this special exhibition does not need to be traditional but it can be. It can be writing, drawings, or anything that the artist feels will contribute to a greater community understanding and accountability for how assault is discussed, presumed, and dismissed in our society. The work will need to be entered with personal contact information, but the work may be 100% anonymous or under an artist pseudonym when displayed in the gallery.
